What is ProstaStream?

ProstaStream is a dietary supplement formulated to support prostate health. It aims to alleviate symptoms associated with an enlarged prostate, such as frequent urination, weak urine flow, and the inability to completely empty the bladder. The supplement is made from high-quality, natural ingredients that have been clinically tested for safety and effectiveness.

Key Ingredients and Their Benefits

- Saw Palmetto: Known for its anti-inflammatory properties, Saw Palmetto helps reduce symptoms of BPH (Benign Prostatic Hyperplasia) like frequent urination and low urine flow. It also supports overall urinary tract health.
- Maitake, Reishi, and Shiitake Mushrooms: These mushrooms are celebrated for their immune-boosting properties. They help improve urinary flow, reduce discomfort, and support overall health by lowering cholesterol, regulating blood sugar, and enhancing gut health.
- Graviola: Also known as Soursop, Graviola helps manage blood pressure and blood sugar levels. It has anti-inflammatory properties that can alleviate prostate inflammation and prevent the spread of prostate cancer cells.
- Cat's Claw: This herb supports the immune system and helps reduce joint pain, high blood pressure, and inflammation. It contributes to overall prostate health.
- Pygeum Africanum Bark: Effective in treating urinary problems caused by an enlarged prostate, Pygeum reduces inflammation and helps shrink the prostate.
- Stinging Nettle Root: Known for its anti-inflammatory properties, this root supports prostate health, reduces symptoms of BPH, and promotes skin, bone, and liver health.
