

[#BK0VO]

How to Get PayPal Money for Free (Using Legit Methods)

if you spend or plan to spend money online it pays to have paypal the website states there are currently 426 million paypal users that have made at least one transaction through the site on average users turn to paypal 45 times per year for everything from paying bills to online shopping of course many of those same people would like to know how to put more money into their paypal account sellers must link a checking account not a paypal routing number to receive their payouts please make sure you provide only a checking account where the name address and business information if applicable on the bank account match the name and information provided to ebay opinionoutpost is another large survey website for various market researchers and brands it claims to pay out 390 000 for more than three million surveys per month some users also have opportunities to earn from product testing watching online ads and going on missions to answer questions or take photos of products in local stores getting free money is something that most people dream of and when it comes to free money paypal is one of the most popular payment platforms that often comes to mind with over 428 million active users worldwide paypal has become a household name